

Oyster business reconstruction project from the Great East Japan Earthquake

SAVE SANRIKU ● OYSTERS

Sanriku Oyster Reconstruction

JUL. 25 2012

Hiroaki SAITO

iLINK Inc.
president / CEO

Before

After

Hirota Bay IWATE

Oshika-hato MIYAGI

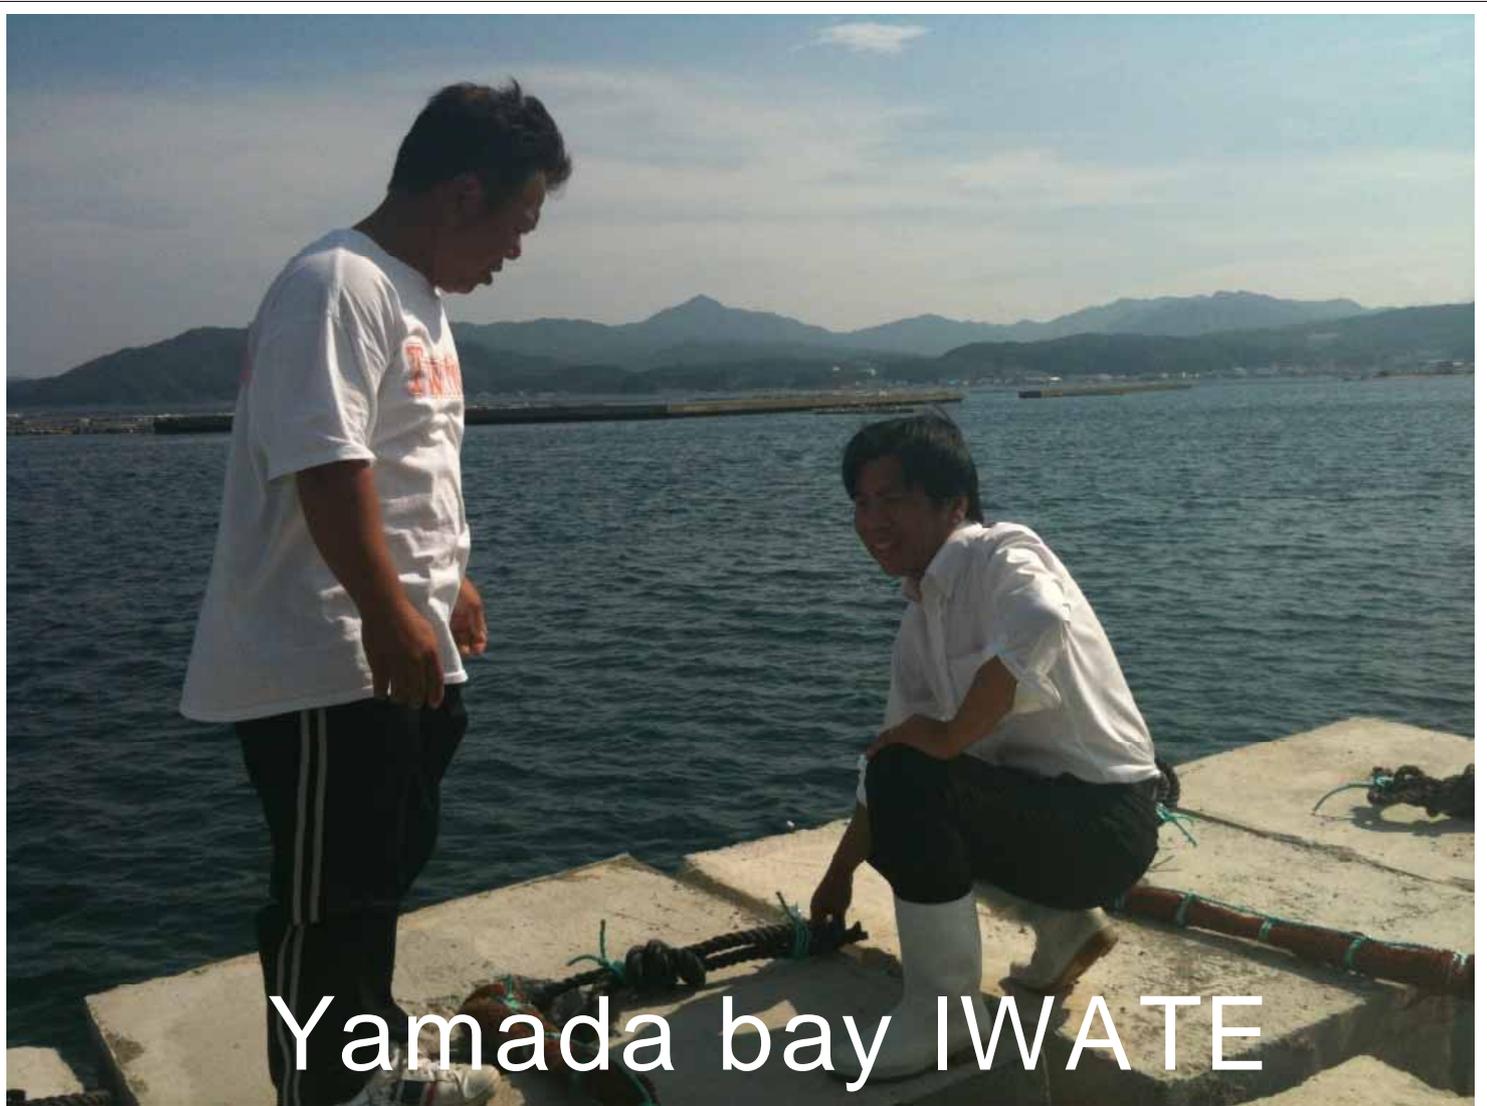

Calling for "Recovered Oyster owners"

10,000 yen (approx. US$100) for one share
= receive approximately 20 oysters after the reconstruction

We need all oyster lovers' generous support.

Expenses for producers (70%)		Other expenses (30%)
To support (40%)	To purchase oysters (30%)	· Other expenses (interview fee, business fee, printing fee) · Communications expenses (postage, phone call fee, etc.), · Credit payment fee, reconstruction oyster shipping fee
<ul style="list-style-type: none">· Ships,-Equipment (Oyster sorting facilities, septic tanks)· Aquaculture materials (timbers, ropes, baskets, etc.)· seed oysters, spats, and other miscellaneous stuff	Purchase reconstruction oysters

Yamada bay IWATE

Akasaki IWATE

Hirota bay IWATE

Karakuwa MIYAGI

Fukiura, Sudachi MIYAGI

Orinohama MIYAGI

Mangokuura MIYAGI

Higashi-Matsushima MIYAGI

Project state of progress

The number of owners

23,933

The number of shares

31518

updated: 14 Jul 2012

10,000Yen for 1 share

We have passed material to 341 Sanriku oyster farmers.

I have been working to help revitalize the Sanriku oyster industry that was completely devastated by the March 11 disasters.

Progress is slowly being made, but true revitalization does not simply mean returning to the way things were.

It means making the industry better than ever before.

Hiroaki SAITO iLINK Inc. President / CEO